

Impact since 2009

Dialogue Through Dance Program

- The program reached 15 students through workshop participation.
- Over 200 people have enjoyed watching our Central Asian Dance performances.

Human Rights Education Program

- Over 20 students from Brooklyn participated in our workshops and went on field trips to Long Island in the 2009-2010 school year.
- Over 20 students participated in the workshops in Long Island, NY in 2010-2011 school year.
- In Spring 2011, more than half of the Human Rights Education program participants graduated with a DBB Human Rights Education Program certificate

Partnering Organizations

- Manorfield Family Center (Huntington Station)
- Every Child Matters
- Women for Afghan Women
- Afghan Women of Long Island and Queens
- New York City Department of Education (various middle and high schools in Brooklyn, Queens, and Manhattan)
- International Social Action Film Festival
- Afghan musician, Khalil Ahmadi and Queens Public Library
- Nassau County Commission on Human Rights
- Adelphi University Dance Team
- Adelphi University's Levermore Global Scholars Program

Please support DBB's efforts to expand their curriculum and reach local communities across Long Island and the New York Metro Area.

Donations should be made payable to "Dialogue beyond Borders, Inc."
Dialogue Beyond Borders
P.O. Box 7135
Garden City, NY 11530
c/o Yana Kusayeva

www.dialoguebeyondborders.org